A Message from Dave Sokolin

I'd like to dedicate this holiday catalog to my father, William Sokolin, who passed away this year in April at age 85.

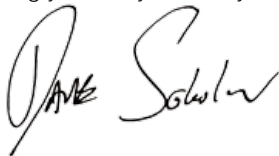

My father was born in 1930 and was only four years old when my grandfather, Dave Sokolin, founded our company. He opened the store on 34th and Madison directly following the repeal of Prohibition, giving us New York liquor license #4. While it was a small store, it was built with my grandfather's dream of something much bigger. My dad eventually inherited the store and brought what many of you know firsthand as his devoted passion to every part of the wine industry and a uniquely creative streak when it came to merchandising and marketing.

When I was younger, I wanted to pass along the traditions that made Sokolin unique, but I was concerned that I wouldn't be able to soak up the exhaustive knowledge and maverick nature that made my father who he was. But now, taking a survey of what we've built, I'm confident that the torch has successfully passed not only to me, but also and especially to our talented staff. While my family was very proud of opening what was quite possibly the very first rare wine store in America, that never stopped Dad from having a $5.99 wine window to bring customers in the door. Many early collectors who bought 100 case lots of 1990 Chateau Latour futures and super rare cases of Burgundy from Bill also bought lower-priced, everyday wines to drink with their families at dinner as well.

My dad was passionate about wine and about introducing the American market to this wonderful art form. In doing so, he befriended every customer that walked through the door. He was their friend and consigliere in the world of wine. There were no mainstream wine critics or point scores then, but rather my father's advice.

This holiday catalog is packed with the full spectrum of wines that interested my father: the most rare Bordeaux, high-scoring, $20 new discoveries as well as investment grade wines and low-priced bottles that taste like them. From our little store on 34th and Madison, my father launched many wines that have become industry staples and are now on every store's shelf. I'm proud to say that our 81st holiday catalog carries on that tradition. As in decades before, these pages contain some of the best values and next big names in wine at a fraction of the price you will pay in the future, and I know that would make Dad proud too.

Wishing you and your family a very happy, healthy and prosperous holiday season.

“A Magical Champagne in the Making...”

2006 Taittinger Comtes de Champagne
$145 bottle | $1,740 case

“The 2006 Comtes de Champagne is striking, especially in the way it brings together elements of ripeness and freshness in a hypothetical blend of the 2002 and 2004. Smooth and creamy on the palate, the 2006 is all about texture. There is a real feeling of density and weight in the 2006, qualities I expect to see grow with time in the bottle. All the elements fall into place effortlessly. The 2006 has been nothing short of magnificent both times I have tasted it. Comtes de Champagne remains the single best value (in relative terms) in tête de cuvée Champagne. "A sleeping giant. Dark ruby in color, showing aromas of blackberry, cepe and green olive, with a hint of mineral. Full-bodied, with ultrafine tannins and a supercaressing mouthfeel. Turns to coffee, dark chocolate and berry. Chewy yet balanced. Very, very long in the mouth. The finish is absolutely breathtaking..."
