Summer by Sokolin

"What is the definition of a good wine? It should start and end with a smile."

– Bill Sokolin

Message from Dave Sokolin

I have some bittersweet family news to report.

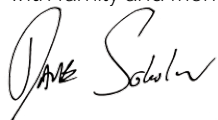

This is by far the hardest message I've had to write for any of our catalogs. As you may have read, my father, Bill Sokolin, passed away at the age of 85, peacefully in his home at the end of April.

My dad had a great and interesting life. As a young man, he was signed to the Brooklyn Dodgers, but left to enlist in the US Army during the Korean War. When he returned from the war, he went directly into my grandfather's liquor business, which opened in 1934. He discovered his passion for wine long before it had been mainstreamed in America, and he innovatively changed the focus of the store from liquor to wine by 1959. What inspired him to begin selling wine, no less wine futures back then, I'll never know, since there really was no wine business in those days. He didn't care, and decided that there was, and it quickly became true. He was a visionary, indeed.

My dad went on to become a pioneering force in the fine and rare wine business and was considered one of the leading experts on the subject of wine and wine investing. He was a published author of "Liquid Assets" and "The Complete Wine Investor" and essentially invented the concept of fine wine investment in the Bordeaux market in the mid-1960s. He inspired every aspect of my career that followed and gave me the opportunity to participate in one of the most pleasurable businesses on earth.

Some of you knew my dad. Some of you bought wine from my dad. Bill was a true original as anyone who knew him can attest to. He was known not only for his vast wine knowledge, but also for his charm, leaving customers with wonderful and memorable experiences and collections. Dad was once famously quoted as saying: "What is the definition of a good wine? It should start and end with a smile."

This catalog is a tribute to my father. It's chock-full of wines that will leave you smiling. Enjoy making memories this summer with family and friends and raise a glass to my dad. His spirit will live on through our family, our company and our wines.

A Bordeaux Super Value from History's Best Modern Vintage

We're excited to feature this super value from St. Emilion! It's rare that you find a wine from Bordeaux of this pedigree for such an incredibly low price. Drink now or hold. Either way, you'll be happy that you did.

"...This is the best Teyssier I have ever tasted..."

– Robert Parker

From the Makers of Le Dome (100 RP) – Only $29.95!

2009 Teyssier

$29.95 bottle | $359.40 case

"...this is the best Teyssier I have ever tasted...blue/purple, with notes of charcoal, blackberry, cassis and spring flowers as well as a hint of subtle background oak., the wine is opulent, sumptuously textured, dense, pure and multi-dimensional. It should drink well for at least a decade or more."

Very Limited 2010 Bordeaux from the Owners of the Famed Cheval Blanc – 93 RP – Only $44.95

2010 La Tour du Pin

$44.95 bottle | $539.40 case

"The 2010 La Tour du Pin is showing incredibly well...Pure, fragrant and -open for business, - so to speak, this is a gorgeous wine to drink over the next 10-15 years. The world wine market hasn't caught up to the quality of this estate, which is now owned by the proprietors of Cheval Blanc and operated under the administration of the same staff that produces that outstanding Bordeaux."

93 RP

– Robert Parker

"A Brilliant, Very Approachable Effort..." from a Fantastic Vintage!

2010 La Lagune

$64.95 bottle | $779.40 case

"Another great success from proprietress Caroline Frey, the 2010 La Lagune provides an essential drinking experience... Full-bodied and pure, combining both elegance and power, this is a brilliant, very approachable effort that should hit its stride in 5-7 years and last for at least two decades. Think of it as a hypothetical blend of the 2005 and 2009. Kudos!"

"A Supreme Success for the Vintage and a Must-Buy..."

2004 Pichon Lalande

$139 bottle | $1,668 case

"...It has a glorious, almost opulent nose with black cherries, blueberries, a hint of sous-bois, pine and freshly rolled tobacco, a touch of tar coming through all with wonderful definition... The palate is medium-bodied with good weight, very well balanced, a sense of controlled opulence here... Silky smooth, almost Burgundian on the finish. A supreme success for the vintage and a must-buy. Outstanding. Drink 2012-2030."

"Louis Latour is one of the top producers of Corton Charlemagne. While other producers have raised prices in the $120+ range, this producer has only raised his quality!"

– Dave Sokolin

A Benchmark Producer of Corton Charlemagne That's Drinking Well Now!

2008 Louis Latour Corton Charlemagne

$89.95 bottle | $1,079.40 case

"Louis Latour has one of the largest landholdings in this famed vineyard and makes a classic, powerful Corton Charlemagne. The acidity of 2008 gives this wine even greater complexity and a purity of line to go with the power and density."

95 WE

– Wine Enthusiast

Only $24.95 but Tastes Like 3x the Price!

2012 Domaine de Roally Vire Clesse

$24.95 bottle | $299.40 case

"An exotic and complex nose of citrus and floral honey. Lemon zest, pear and white flowers on the palate...The mouth-feel is almost satin-like in texture. This is a steal of a wine at this low price-point and could easily be mistaken for a wine 3x the price."

Henri Boillot is Known as the Magician of Burgundy!

2007 Henri Boillot Volnay les Caillerets

$95 bottle | $1,140 case

"Compelling aromas of blackberry, dark chocolate, violet, minerals and game, with a whiff of superripe fruits. Thick, powerful and stuffed with material, but the wine's suavity of texture and underlying minerality keep it from coming off as heavy. A wonderfully dense and suave 2007 with outstanding intensity and length..."

93 ST

One of the Best Values from this A+ Vintage! 97-Points!

2010 La Serena Brunello di Montalcino

$49.95 bottle | $599.40 case

"Intense aromas of dried citrus and meat with hints of rose bush and fresh rosemary. Full body with full, velvety tannins and a decadent, rich finish. Fascinating flavors of spice, citrus and meat. Loads of fruit. From biodynamically grown grapes."

97 JS

- James Suckling

"A Terrific Effort that Promises a Steady Evolution..."

2010 Ciacci Piccolomini Brunello di Montalcino Pianrosso

$59.95 bottle | $719.40 case

"...impresses for its depth and balance. The wine sees one more year of oak cask aging compared to the base Brunello and you can definitely sense the extra spice on the nose...The finish is graceful and silky, but its length remains impressive. This is a terrific effort that promises a steady evolution ahead."

"One of the Finest 2013 Sancerres I Tasted..."

2013 Alphonse Mellot Sancerre La Moussiere

$28.99 bottle | $347.88 case

"...a quality and stylistic level most producers don't reach rudimentarily...offers very pure, mineral and fresh fruit and floral aromas on the nose...invitingly subtle, elegant and profound...On the palate, too, this is a pure, complex and powerful Sancerre of great personality, finesse and expression... this is a serious, fresh and persistent wine and surely one of the finest 2013 Sancerres I tasted... You may enjoy it now and surely the next five or more years..."

15-Year-Old, 100-Point Bordeaux Legend in 6L Format!

2000 La Mission Haut Brion

$11,995 (6L)

"A superstar of this great vintage, the 2000 La Mission Haut-Brion is as profound as the 1989, 1982, and 1975. It is more structured and tannic than the 1989, more civilized and refined, but not as thick as the 1982, and sweeter as well as purer than the 1975. In time, one might have to return to the prodigious duo of 1959 and 1961 to find a La Mission with this much potential. Its inky purple color is accompanied by extravagantly sweet aromas of blackberries, blueberries, toast, scorched earth, coffee, asphalt, graphite, and smoke. Super-intense and unctuously-textured, with a sumptuous mid-palate and finish, this is an explosively rich, layered effort that possesses everything I could ever want from a terroir that has given me as much hedonistic and intellectual pleasure as any other wine in the world. It is an amazing achievement. The phenomenal aftertaste goes on for over a minute. Anticipated maturity: 2011-2045."
