

New Year, New Arrivals

"I Would Gladly Pay Three to Four Times the Going Rate."

2015 Chateau Saint-Roch Cotes Roussillon Chimeres (Languedoc)

$14.95 bottle | $179.40 case

"Giving up jammy notes of black raspberries, licorice, smoked herbs and chocolate, the 2015 Cotes du Roussillon Villages Chimeres... needs to be snatched up by savvy readers. Full-bodied, deep and layered with incredible texture, I actually called this a mini SQN [Sine Qua Non]. I would gladly pay three to four times the going rate. Bravo!"

93 RP

– Robert Parker's Wine Advocate

This White Burgundy is Consistently One of Our Favorites - Under $22!

2015 Domaine de Roault Vire Clesse (Burgundy)

$21.95 bottle | $263.40 case

"...It has a very clean and precise bouquet, with crushed rock scents complementing the light apple blossom aromas. The palate is fresh and crisp on the entry with a crisp line of acidity...keeps you yearning for the next sip. What a great Vire-Clesse this is—they just don't get much better."

91 RP

– Robert Parker's Wine Advocate

This 93-Point Super Tuscan Far Outperforms Its Price!

2010 Petrol II Torriane IGT (Tuscany)

$26.95 bottle | $323.40 case

"The 2010 Torriane is exception and a very reasonable value. It opens with elegant richness and soft tones of black cherry, licorice, spice and dark leather. The style is opulent and confident for this mostly Sangiovese-based wine. Anticipated maturity: 2014-2024."

93 RP

– Robert Parker's Wine Advocate

It's Almost Impossible to Find High Quality Bordeaux at this Price!

2010 Vrai Canon Bouche (Bordeaux)

$34.95 bottle | $419.40 case

"...Opaque blue/purple, the unmistakable notes of wet rock, blueberry liqueur, spring flower garden, crushed chalk and earth are all present in this full-bodied, seriously endowed, over-achieving Fronsac, It is built for the long haul..."

92 RP

– Robert Parker