

New Year, New Arrivals

"I Would Gladly Pay Three to Four Times the Going Rate."

2015 Chateau Saint-Roch Cotes Roussillon Chimeres (Languedoc)

$14.95 bottle | $179.40 case

"Giving up jammy notes of black raspberries, licorice, smoked herbs and chocolate, the 2015 Cotes du Roussillon Villages Chimeres... needs to be snatched up by savvy readers. Full-bodied, deep and layered with incredible texture, I actually called this a mini SQN [Sine Qua Non]. I would gladly pay three to four times the going rate. Bravo!"

This White Burgundy is Consistently One of Our Favorites - Under $22!

2015 Domaine de Roault Vire Clesse (Burgundy)

$21.95 bottle | $263.40 case

"...It has a very clean and precise bouquet, with crushed rock scents complementing the light apple blossom aromas. The palate is fresh and crisp on the entry with a crisp line of acidity...keeps you yearning for the next sip. What a great Vire-Clesse this is—they just don't get much better."

This 93-Point Super Tuscan Far Outperforms Its Price!

2010 Petrol II Torriane IGT (Tuscany)

$26.95 bottle | $323.40 case

"The 2010 Torriane is exception and a very reasonable value. It opens with elegant richness and soft tones of black cherry, licorice, spice and dark leather. The style is opulent and confident for this mostly Sangiovese-based wine. Anticipated maturity: 2014-2024."

“La Ca’ Nova Remains One of the True Undiscovered Jewels of Barbaresco...” – Antonio Galloni

2013 La Ca’ Nova Barbaresco Montefico Vigna Bric Mentina (Piedmont)

$37.95 bottle | $455.40 case

"The 2013 Barbaresco Montefico Vigna Bric Mentina is rich, ample and explosive. A host of dark stone fruit, tobacco, licorice, smoke and leather make a strong first impression... There is so much to like in this powerful, classically built Barbaresco."

A 97-Pointer That Punches Well Above Its Price Tag

2012 El Enemigo Gran Enemigo (Mendoza)

$59.99 bottle | $719.88 case

"A dense and muscular red but shows fabulous texture and form. Full body, firm and velvety tannins and a length that is splendid and sophisticated...so great. A blend of cabernet franc and cabernet sauvignon with merlot and petit verdot."

This is the Vintage We've Been Waiting for – the Best in Years!

2013 Cavallotto Barolo Bricco Boschis (Piedmont)

$67.95 bottle | $815.40 case

"Cavallotto is on a roll with some very impressive new releases. The 2013 Barolo Bricco Boschis is a tremendous effort... The wine shows a beautifully exuberant but elegant bouquet with the ethereal and undertone fruit and spice aromas... it does show silky persistence and a long finish...behind that polished grace, it delivers impressive depth and power."
