White Burgundy – 2015s to Own

"...2015 saw a rare phenomenon in Burgundy: a good vintage for both reds and whites." – Wine Enthusiast

"The 2015 whites are clean, pure and rich, favoring ripe orchard and soft citrus fruits over minerality, as is typical of very warm, sunny years." – Vinous Media

Our Go-To White Burgundy Value Under $22

2015 Domaine de Roally Vire Clesse

$21.95 bottle | $263.40 case

"...It has a very clean and precise bouquet, with crushed rock scents complementing the light apple blossom aromas. The palate is fresh and crisp on the entry with a crisp line of acidity, just the right amount of bitterness that keeps you yearning for the next sip. "Light pink color. Yeasty notes of cherry, raspberry and raspberry are laced with plenty of citrus character lead to delicious, round and relatively dense flavors that possess excellent depth on the lingering finish where the yeast and citrus elements both resurface... Lovely stuff and worth checking out if you enjoy rosé fashioned in a generously proportioned but notably complex way."

This is the Vintage We've Been Waiting for - the Best in Years!

2013 Vietti Barolo Castiglione

$44.95 bottle | $539.40 case

"...Dark cherry, plum, spice, new leather and menthol are all used together. Intense and voluptuous, the Castiglione shows the richer, more intense side of the vintage. Time in the glass helps release the aromatics and the brighter side of Nebbiolo. Quite simply, the 2013 is a super Barolo Castiglione that is starting to close the qualitative gap with the single vineyard Barolos."

"Cavallotto is on a Roll with Some Very Impressive New Releases."

2013 Cavallotto Barolo Bricco Boschis

$67.95 bottle | $815.40 case

"Cavallotto is on a roll with some very impressive new releases... a tremendous effort... The wine shows a beautifully exuberant but elegant bouquet with the ethereal and undertone fruit and spice aromas you get with Nebbiolo... it does show silky persistence and a long finish that comes from the noble nature of the tannins and the wine's textural finesse. Yet, it is playfully deceiving in a way because behind that polished grace, it delivers impressive depth and power."

2015 Calendal (Philippe Cambie et Gilles Ferran)

Cotes du Rhone Plan de Dieu

$23.95 bottle | $287.40 case

"Always a value and well-known Rhone oenologist Philippe Cambie's own label, the 2015 Côtes du Rhone Villages Plan de Dieu Calendal is a blockbuster blend of 70% Grenache and 30% Mourvèdre that offers full-bodied, rich, even decadent notes of cassis, crushed flowers, licorice and hints of vanilla bean. It has a killer mid-palate, sweet tannin and a big finish, all of which make it just about impossible to resist. Still, it should keep nicely for at least 5-7 years."

We rarely get the opportunity to see this kind of special large format from 1982 in its original wood case. Professionally stored since release and selling for 1/2 the price of 1961 Chateau Latour double magnums. This legendary Latour is set to follow in the footsteps of the equally superb, 100-point, 1961 Latour. Only three double magnums available.

Lowest Market Price in the U.S.

1982 Chateau Latour

$13,450 per double magnum (3L) - individual wood case

"It is an amazing wine, and on several occasions, I have actually picked it as a right bank Pomerol because of the lushness and succulence of the cedary, blackberry, black currant fruit. This vintage has always tasted great, even in its youth, and revealed a precociousness that one does not associate with this Chateau. However, the 1982 is still evolving at a glacial pace. The concentration remains remarkable, and the wine is a full-bodied, exuberant, rich, classic Pauillac in its aromatic and flavor profiles. It's just juiced up (similar to an athlete on steroids) and is all the better for it. This remarkable effort will last as long as the 1982 Mouton, but it has always been more approachable and decadently fruity. Drink it now, in 20 years, and in 50 years! Don't miss it if you are a wine lover. Drink: 2009 – 2059."
